AN ACT

August 25, 1958
[H. R. 10173]

To provide for the transfer of title to certain land at Sand Island, Territory of Hawaii, to the Territory of Hawaii, and for other purposes.

Sand Island Military Reservation,
T.H.
Transfer of land.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized, when he determines that land comprising any portion or portions of Sand Island Military Reservation, Honolulu, island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, including submerged lands therein, not to exceed in the aggregate two hundred and two acres, is no longer required or is not required for military purposes, to transfer to the Territory of Hawaii, by Executive order, all the right, title, and interest of the United States in said land, together with the improvements thereon, and to grant nonexclusive easements over other land comprised within the Sand Island Military Reservation and the Navy Harbor Entrance Control Post in favor of the Territory of Hawaii which he shall deem necessary for the proper enjoyment of the premises transferred. Such transfer shall be subject to the conditions set forth in this Act.

Terms and conditions.

SEC. 2. Such transfer as may be made pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be without monetary consideration but subject to—

(a) terms and conditions that may be determined by the President to be in the interest of national defense; and

(b) avigation or restrictive easements, or both, as may be considered necessary by the President.

Relocation of Naval facilities.

SEC. 3. The Territory of Hawaii shall relocate or procure the relocation at another location on Sand Island of the Navy tower and other facilities on the southern shore of Sand Island, if the land on which such facilities are now located shall be transferred to the Territory of Hawaii pursuant to this Act. Until this requirement is fulfilled by the Territory, there are hereby reserved to the United States all such portions of the premises authorized to be transferred as are needed for the full enjoyment of such facilities.

Disposition of transferred land.

SEC. 4. (a) Any land transferred pursuant to this Act may be sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of by the Territory of Hawaii for any purposes consistent with the provisions of this Act and the terms and conditions set forth in any Executive order issued pursuant thereto. Any such sale, lease, or other disposition shall be by public auction to the highest responsible bidder, but at not less than the appraised value: Provided, That the notice of sale, lease, or other disposition shall be by publication once a week for a period of four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city and county of Honolulu: Provided further, That all revenue or proceeds from any such sale, lease, or other disposition shall be used solely for the support of the University of Hawaii. Such sale shall otherwise comply with the Hawaiian Organic Act and the laws of Hawaii relating to public lands.

31 Stat. 141.
48 USC 678.

(b) Any sale, lease, or other disposition made pursuant to subsection (a) hereof shall be upon such conditions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the terms and conditions set forth in the Executive order issued pursuant thereto, as to the making of improvements, the amount of improvements, the time within which such improvements shall be made, or such other conditions, reservations, covenants, or terms as the appropriate officials of the Territory of Hawaii may determine, including provision for rights-of-way for ingress or egress, drainage and utility purposes, avigation easements, and other purposes.
